Northwest Federal Credit Union Breaks Ground on Manassas Branch

Herndon, VA – Northwest Federal Credit Union (NWFCU) officially broke ground on their future Manassas Branch – the Credit Union’s first branch in Prince William County, Virginia. The new branch is slated to open in late 2008 and features time-saving amenities including drive-thru banking, a 24-hour drive-up ATM, a night depository, safe deposit boxes and more.

NWFCU’s branch development and construction is underway with Clayco, Inc. of St. Louis, MO, which boasts more than 24 years of experience across the country in facility design and construction. Clayco’s use of innovative financial solutions such as automatic teller cash dispensers and transaction tubes will allow NWFCU to provide members with accurate, efficient service.

Groundbreaking ceremony attendees included NWFCU President/CEO Gerrienne “Winky” Burks, Board Chairman Joel Ticknor, Board Vice-Chairman Leo Cardillo, Board Treasurer Chuck Molina, NWFCU Executive Staff, and Clayco, Inc.

“We’re excited about branching out to Prince William County and the opportunity to serve our members living and working in Manassas,” said Winky Burks. “We know our members and local business owners will enjoy the convenience of our new branch location – plus we’ll have the chance to work closely with the entire community, residents, and local schools when they’re right in our backyard.”

With more than $1.5 billion in assets, NWFCU ranks among the largest credit unions in Virginia and in the top 100 credit unions in the nation. Established in 1947, NWFCU serves more than 97,000 members through its branches in Chantilly, Herndon and Vienna, VA.
