Greater Reston Chamber of Commerce awards Best Event of 2007 to Ethics Day

The Greater Reston Chamber of Commerce (GRCC) selected the 2007 Ethics Day, which NWFCU has supported for the last six years through a generous sponsorship, as the Best Event of this fiscal year.

Ethics Day is a joint GRCC project with South Lakes High School's senior class that has received considerable national recognition. The entire class (approximately 400 students and faculty) goes off-site for a day of immersion in workshops and discussions covering ethical decision-making scenarios for careers and everyday life.

NWFCU employees volunteered for the Ethics Day held on November 20, 2007. Table leaders had the unique opportunity to interact with local students, help facilitate interesting discussions and encourage conversations about ethics.

The NWFCU Foundation received the award at the annual Chairman's Luncheon and Awards for Chamber Excellence (ACE) event held June 26, 2008.
